Dear Parents and Carers,

Some books in the Spy Dogs, Spy Pup, and Spy Cat series by Andrew Cope include a website link at the back that no longer leads to information about the book. Unfortunately, this link now directs users to inappropriate material that is not suitable for children.

We want to reassure you that there are no copies of these books in school, and local libraries are informed. Authorities are working to remove this content urgently.

Below are images of the book covers to help you identify them:

Thank you for helping us keep our children safe online.
